

CDV Chart

CDV	Definition	Everyday Life Example	Historical Example
Patriotism	We all have a duty to serve each other and our country.
Common Good	Each one of us has a duty to work together to improve our communities and country.
Truth	Our government and citizens have a duty to be honest and trustworthy.
Popular Sovereignty	The people, not the government, rule the country through their votes.
Diversity	Our different backgrounds helped build this country and make it stronger.
Justice	Everyone should be treated fairly by our laws, our courts, and our government.
Pursuit of Happiness	Our right to do what we want provided we don't impose upon others.
Equality	Regardless of differences, we have the right to be treated equally.
Life	No one has the right to take a life.
Liberty - Individual Freedoms	Each of us has basic freedoms our government can not take away from us.		